La Crosse city and county yesterday gave substantial majorities to La Follette's delegates over Taft delegates to the national republican convention.
John Barnes received nearly twice as many votes in the city and county as Bashford for supreme judge
while Ruger was scarcely a factor.
West Salem and Bangor both voted for license, while the townships in the county were divided on the liquor question.

La Follette Men Smiling.
There are nothing but smiles in the La Follette camp in La Crosse, which now comprises about the whole county. The signal victory of the La Crosse republican national delegates-at-large is pleasing beyond expression to the friends of the "Fighting Bob" of the senate. The returns show his delegates, Messrs.
Brunner, Cooper, Peterson and Stephenson, have an overwhelming majority over Messrs. Estes, Fairchild, Homstad and Winkler, the Taft (stalwart) delegates, as indicated in the following returns:
Houser and Wing Win.

ELECTED JUSTICE OF SUPREME COURT IN A WARM CAMPAIGN

JOHN BARNES
Ex-Chairman of State Railway Commission Who Carried State Yesterday
By About 25,000 Votes.

Barnes will not take his seat until the second Tuesday in August according to the interpretation given to the statutes at the capitol today.
The law says in case of a judicial election to fill a vacancy the candidate shall take the seat the first day of the next regular term of court.

The supreme court meets in the next regular term in August. Forty-five days' time is given the secretary of state to canvass the vote.
It is generally conceded here that scurrilous literature sent out by the Bashford headquarters here caused his defeat. A document calling the men who signed Barnes' petition in Milwaukee "corporation lawyers"
was the most harmful.

ROOSEVELT ISSUES ORDERS TO
ARMY AND NAVY
FOR A BIG DEMONSTRATION

Step Does Not Mean War but Indicates Venezuela Will Be Menaced Soon

WASHINGTON, April 8.—It was learned today that tentative preparations are being made by the army and navy for a possible demonstration against Venezuela, as the result of a direct order by President Roosevelt at the recommendation of Secretary Root. The preparations do not mean that the government has decided on war, as such action must be taken by the legislative branch. The present orders, however, are more explicit than any that have gone to the war department since the Boxer uprising.

DEMOCRATIC MAYOR WINS AT MADISON

MADISON, Wis., April 8.—Mayor
J. C. Schubert, democrat, was re-elected mayor by a majority of about 1,200 over the Rev. W. J. McKay, republican candidate. The democrats also elected a majority of the candidates for aldermen, and will continue in control of the common council. Jacob Behrend, democrat, was elected city treasurer. Barnes has carried the city of Madison. He carried Judge Bashford's own ward by a plurality of 20. The estimated total vote of the La Follette delegates in Madison is 1,800 and for the Taft delegates 1,000.

GIRL STOPS JAIL DELIVERY

MURPHYSBURG, Ill., April 8.—
Six prisoners escaped from the Jackson county jail today during a heavy storm. Seven others were stopped by Zera Hanson, aged 17, daughter of the sheriff. She held the seventh escaped man by the feet until help arrived.

OTHER STATE ELECTIONS

A Number of Towns Go Dry—Elec-

Judges Elected

MADISON, Wis., April 8.—(Special.)—While complete returns from the Eighth and Tenth congressional districts are lacking, it is claimed at La Follette headquarters that the state has elected a solid La Follette delegation to the national republican convention. In the Tenth Alexander and Brezau, the Taft delegates, were the hope of the stalwarts, but the La Follette men piled up a majority of more than two thousand outside of Marathon county, the Alexander stronghold, and reference to election tables indicate the entire impossibility of the Taft men overcoming it there. The doubt said last night to have existed about the Eighth district is also removed, Thomas E. Torrison and G. B. Nelson having carried it for La Follette by a small majority. The fear expressed by La Follette men that portions of Milwaukee were dangerous have proved groundless, the La Follette delegates
there carrying the day handsomely.
The delegation that will represent La Follette at Chicago, it is said at headquarters, will vote for him until a candidate is elected. They are as follows:

len Cooper, Atley Peterson, Isaac

BOMB HURLED INTO ITALIAN'S HOME

BLACK HAND LETTER HAD RE-MAINED $5,000

MEMBERS OF FAMILY ESCAPE

Internal Machine Is Filled With Bullets Identical With Those Taken in Recent Anarchistic Raid

CHICAGO, April 8.—Despite the vigilance of the police, an attempt was made early this morning to dynamite the home of Antonio Lunio, a wealthy Italian whose son was threatened with kidnapping a week ago. A bomb was thrown into the room where Lunio, his wife and son were sleeping. The explosion partially wrecked the house, but the occupants were unharmed.
For a week Lunio has lived in a state of terror, fearing an effort to steal his 11-year-old son, as was threatened in a Black Hand letter demanding $5,000. The police and the White Hand society, devoted to extermination of the Black Hand, were both notified. The policemen have accompanied Lunio to school
every day.
Neighbors say they heard ten distinct explosions.

The bomb was filled with lead slugs and bullets which riddled the house. The police discovered bullets identical with those taken in the raid some time ago on a house at 69 Gault court, following the killing of Jos. Congilio, a wealthy Italian.
At that time Felice Marici and five others were arrested. Marici was indicted for the murder, but the other men were discharged and could not be found this morning.

BEAUTIFUL LAKE OF CASCADES GONE

PORTLAND, Ore., April 8.— Parnell lake, one of the most beautiful bodies of water in the Cascade mountains, has completely disappeared, according to Forest Warden Smith, who has just arrived here. The lake was in a great bowl at the top of the Cascades. All that is now left is a great crevice and the remains of fish with which the lake abounded. The lake was half a mile wide and two miles long and very deep.

DEFIANT ARMY OF "CHI'S" UNEMPLOYED

CHICAGO, April 8.—Three hundred men facing starvation went to the city hall today demanding work.
It was refused them and they are marshaled on the sidewalk refusing to move away. Trouble is threatened.
A police sergeant told R. Romadi,
a leader of the men, he would be locked up unless he went away. Romadi refused.
"You can beat us, shoot us or kill us, but we stay here," he said. He told the police 2000 unemployed were forming in different parts of the city and were preparing to march on the city hall. The police have surrounded the men, who continue defiant.

Police Disperse Mob
A riot call was sent in and the police armed with their night sticks advanced on the crowd at the city hall.
The men wavered and then decided to disperse rather than be clubbed.
They went away quietly.

MRS. E. L. KUENTZEL DIES AT SEATTLE

James A. Trane of this city received word today of the death of his niece, Mrs. E. L. Kuentzel, nee Lottie Trane, death having occurred at Seattle, and while the telegram did not state any particulars, death is supposed to have been caused by heart trouble.
Deceased was well known in La Crosse, having spent her childhood in this city and graduated at the local high school. She left La Crosse with her mother and sisters about five years ago, going to Milwaukee,
where she was married two years ago.
The body will probably be taken to Milwaukee for interment beside her late father.

PARKER ON N. Y. "BIG FOUR" BAD FOR BRYAN

NEW YORK, April 8.—Information coming from the inner circles of Tammany hall includes a statement that the organization slate for the "big four" delegates to represent the democracy of New York at the Denver convention is made up as follows: Alton B. Parker, Lewis S.
Chanler, Lieut. Gov. William J. Conners, State Chairman Charles F.
Murphy, leader of Tammany hall.
Patrick McCarren was eliminated.
The party leaders say the slate represents harmony, but Parker is bitterly opposed to Bryan, and the impression prevails that the majority of the delegation from the state will favor Johnson.

FIGHT TO FINISH ON BETTING BILL

FRIENDS OF HUGHES MEASURE
CLAIM TO HAVE MAJORITY

ONE MEMBER IS KIDNAPPED

But Returns Declaring He Will Vote
for the Bill and Smiling at His Experiences

ALBANY, N. Y., April 8.—Great crowds thronged the galleries of the senate today waiting for action on the bills to end race track gambling which are up for final passage.
They will affect a vast number of people, and will change the value of property in many cities. Their passage is also declared to mean the end of the thoroughbred breeding business in Kentucky. If the bills pass it is declared, racing associations will run off the race scheduled for the year and then abandon the game.
Should the anti race track gambling bill fail to be passed today it is said Hughes may be eliminated from the presidential race. He has declared he would not be candidate for re-election as governor, and if not nominated for president, will resume the practice of law. However, so deeply is he concerned in stopping track gambling, that he intimated he would call an extra session and announce himself a candidate for governor on anti-gambling platform.

Fears of Defeat.
ALBANY, April 8.—At 12:50 today it was said the gambling bills would be lost. Three senators regarded as uncertain are said to have announced that they will vote against the bills. This leaves the vote 25 to 25, and lacking the constitutional majority.

The Fight Is On.
ALBANY, April 8.—The fight is waging fiercely on the gambling bills this afternoon, preliminary to taking a vote. Senator Raines declares he still has 26 votes, enough to win.
Senator Fancher is absent, and it is understood every effort will be made to block the vote until he has been found.

Kidnaped One Appears.
ALBANY, April 8.—Fancher appeared at 2:30, and said he would vote for the bills. It is believed his will make the 26th vote. It is alleged an effort was made to kidnap
him. He came in smiling and apparently well pleased with his experience.

JULIA MARLOWE IN SCANDAL AT LAST

SALEM, Mass., April 8.—Mrs.
Clara L. Von Herrmann of Hamilton yesterday filed suit for divorce from her husband, Karl Stephen Von Herrmann, naming Julia Marlowe, the actress, and Mrs. Maud Thornburn Backus of Brooklyn as co-respondents.
The husband formerly was a newspaper and magazine writer and became assistant manager for Miss Marlowe on her tours.
The complaint names twenty places
in this country and abroad where Von Herrmann is alleged to have been in the company of Miss Marlowe and Mrs. Backus. The actress is the more prominently mentioned of the two.

STARVING, KILLS SELF IN AMBULANCE

CHICAGO, April 8.—Albert Christian, aged 50 years, shot himself in the police ambulance while being taken to the county hospital this morning. John Vavick and Christian were being taken in ambulances as charity patients. The driver heard a shot inside the vehicle and found Christian dead with a bullet hole in his head. Vavick was in a delirium of fever, and could tell nothing about the shooting. Christian was sick and starving when found.

SHOULDN'T RAISE ARMOR.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 8.—
Secretary Metcalf today sent the senate the naval committee report from Evans, dated Magdalena Bay, saying: "With smooth seas, and practically no wind, the swell sometimes caused such rolling and pitching as to expose the lower portion of the armor belt with a heavy load, hence the lower limit of armor should not be raised."

MINERS MEET TODAY.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 8.—
Illinois coal miners met in delegate convention this morning in preparation for a meeting with the operators called for this afternoon to reach an agreement on two points standing in the way of adopting the wage scale. President Lewis is expected to arrive and urge the miners to attend the conference at Toledo April 14.

the case of Mary Paddock vs. Hiram

BANGOR PLUNGES INTO THE BATTLE

MASSMEETING OF CITIZENS
BACKS TRY FOR SCHOOL

CLAIMS THE BEST SITE

Money Is Plenty and Committee Visits La Crosse Today Accompanied by Score of Citizens

BANGOR, Wis., April 8.—(Special.)—At a mass meeting last night attended by practically the entire body of business men, it was decided to go after the agricultural school plum in a whirlwind campaign. Bangor has been working in the "still hunt" manner up to date, preferring not to make an open move until it had assurances of ample finances to carry out the project. Citizens declare examination of any disinterested persons will show that Bangor has the most ideal site for the school of any aspirant. It is within the village limits, suitably located for good drainage, and of ideal soil.
At the meeting last night a committee of seven to "hustle" for the school was appointed, as follows:

E. J. Kneen, N. M. Elsen, L. J.
Roberts, A. Mengel, W. M. Smith, E.
Merle, Oscar Hussa, R. W. Bowen.
This committee has definite plans for its campaign. Its members are of the opinion that victory lies in merely getting influential people to actually view the site, on the theory that it is so much superior to others that it will win its own case. Their methods, however, are not to be discussed for publication.

The committee of seven from Bangor, appointed to secure the selection of that village as the site for the agricultural school, came to La Crosse today accompanied by at least twenty other business men, and began the hustle for their site. E. J.
Kneen and N. M. Elsen, of the committee, were seen by a Tribune reporter, and they expressed confidence in the ability of Bangor to win in the contest, provided a fair and open battle on merits is permitted.
"We have the site of them all," said Mr. Kneen, "and as for money, we have plenty now, and every man in Bangor will double his subscription if need be. Bangor is the place for that school, and Bangor wants it."

ANARCHISTS KILLED 18 OF 22 CHILDREN

SEVILLE, Spain, April 8.—Suspected of murdering 18 of their own children, Molina, an anarchist, and Frances Herrera, with whom he has lived for 29 years, have been arrested. A mob made a desperate attempt to lynch the couple. They have had 22 children in 29 years. It is believed four only survive. Fragments of skeletons of infants were found in the house. A small cemtery was found in the cellar and other graves in the yard. The police think some of the children were buried alive.

FIVE GAMES FOR UNIVERSITY OF WIS.

FACULTY WILL NOT EXTEND THE NUMBER

DECISION REACHED BY BOARD

Hope of Getting Six Contests Fail at Meeting Held at Madison Last Night

MADISON, Wis., April 8.—Five games will constitute the university of Wisconsin football schedule next fall. This decision was reached at a meeting of the university faculty on the recommendation of the athletic council. There was practically no discussion of the matter, and the vote was cast with but few members in favor of the longer schedule of six games. There will be no further arguments for a change in the faculty ruling. Dr. H. W. Hines, whom the decision concerns probably more than any other member of the faculty, was reticent on the subject.

BETTING ON BOUT IS FAVORING BRITT

SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—Little interest was manifested today in the odds laid on the Britt-McFarland battle of Saturday, and it seemed likely that a radical change in the prices will take place before next Saturday. While McFarland has attracted great notice here, many seem to doubt his punching ability when facing an experienced veteran like Jimmy.

It is possible that the "native son" sentiment may send Britt into the ring the choice next Saturday. This possibility is due to the fact that Britt surprised visitors when he weighed in public. He tipped the scales at 135 1/2 pounds, although it had been believed that he was somewhat above this figure.

Abe Attell's entry into the light-weight division has caused considerable perplexity here, so far as the boxers in that division are concerned. That he will prove a dangerous factor, in spite of his lack of weight, is generally recognized. The Gilmore contingent did not show any particular readiness to match McFarland with him, when provisional articles were suggested to the effect that Attell should be considered as an opponent in case the Chicago boy came out victorious next Saturday.

It is not likely that there will be much wagering on the Sullivan-Attell bout. It is generally believed here that Sullivan will have to weaken himself to make the 125 pounds demanded by the articles.

BADGERS FOR 5 GAME SCHEDULE

MADISON, Wis., April 8.—The faculty of the University of Wisconsin by an overwhelming vote has decided not to increase the number of football games next fall from five to six. There was little discussion on the proposition, which came before the faculty on a recommendation by the athletic council that the schedule be extended.

The action of the faculty is regarded as finally disposing of the question for this year. As a result, Wisconsin will next fall play Chicago, Minnesota, Indiana and Lawrence universities and Marquette college of Milwaukee.

Professor E. D. Angell, assistant professor of physical training in the university, coach of the basketball team and assistant coach of the football and track teams, has accepted the position of director of athletics at the Oregon State Agricultural college at Corvallis, Oregon. He will leave Wisconsin at the end of the present school year.

PIERCE IS WINNER OVER WALSH IN SIX

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., April 8.—"Young" Pierce's shifty footwork and strength enabled him to win a six round decision from Jimmy Walsh of Boston at the West End Athletic club Monday night. The local fighter did most all the aggressive work and had Walsh bleeding at the finish.

Both boys weighed in at 110 pounds and this was Pierce's fight after the first round.

In one of the preliminaries Jack Martin of Chicago stopped Jack Reese in the third round. Mark Anderson of Chicago and Jack Redden fought a six round draw.

CAMPBELL AWARDED TO CHICAGO CUBS

CINCINNATI, O., April 8.—The national baseball commissions (B. R. Johnson and Garry Herrmann only acting) Monday decided the case of Player Campbell, brought before the commission by President Murphy of the Chicago Nationals.

Campbell's name had been added to the Winnipeg club in a bulletin issued by Mr. Farrell in March, 1908, after Campbell had signed with the Chicago club. As Winnipeg's club had not put in any evidence as to any legitimate claim on the player the commission awarded Campbell to Chicago.

Russian Does Not Believe He Got a Square Deal, But Admits Gotch Was Underestimated

NEW YORK, April 8.—George Hackenschmidt, the late world's champion wrestler, who was defeated by Frank Gotch in Chicago last Friday night, sailed for home yesterday on the North German Lloyd steamer Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, downhearted and discontented. He was loath at first to speak of his defeat, remarking:

"There is nothing for me to say. I don't want to talk. Every defeated man has excuses to offer, but I don't want to offer any."

"Do you believe you have had a square deal?" he was asked. He hesitated a minute and then said:

"Really, I don't believe I have had. The referee did not seem to see the way Gotch was wrestling, and I had no one behind me to look after my interests. You can see for yourself. I am all scratched on the left side of my face. That should not occur in a wrestling match. But Gotch kept continually digging his thumb into my eyes and the side of my face and my left ear. His finger nails were long, and they did great damage. Why, even some Americans by the ringside cried: 'Shame.'"

"Then, too, I could get no hold on Gotch because of the oil on him that made him slippery. If I had had

FUGINA BROTHERS BUY STR. RUTLEDGE

BIG BOAT WILL BE USED IN EXCURSION BUSINESS

IS LARGER THAN THE W. W.

Well Known Fountain City Boatmen Complete Deal for Big Steamboat for Upper River Service

It is announced that Fugina Brothers of Fountain City have purchased the E. Rutledge from Weyerhaeuser & Denckman of Rock Island. The steamer will be transferred into an excellent excursion craft and will be used for local trade. It is about the length of the Frontenac and W. W., but is two feet wider than either and will make an ideal boat for what it is intended. The Fugina brothers have been trying to purchase this steamer for several years, but an agreement as to terms has just been arranged. The steamer will accommodate between 600 and 700 people without a barge, but a barge will be supplied for large excursion parties. This boat will take the place of the Columbia and Fountain City, which have been caring for the local trade for the past two years. This year, however, the Fugina brothers intend to engage in the excursion business more actively than ever and the territory covered will be more extensive. The steamer Ideal will take care of the trade between Winona and Fountain City this summer and regular trips have begun. With these two excellent boats in local waters the coming year should be a banner one in the river excursion business.

You seldom see a man so honest that he says to his wife, "Where did I leave my hat?" He usually says: "Where did you put my hat?"

Women Who Think.

If you are a thinking woman, and you no doubt think you are, the following will make you think.

Just between you and me, is it not a significant fact that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the only medicine for woman's peculiar ailments, the makers of which print a full list of its ingredients, attested under oath, on its bottle-wrappers?

Does this not mean something to you if you are a sufferer?

It means that you absolutely know what you are taking when you make use of this world-famed medicine.

It means that you absolutely know that you are not taking "booze" when using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, but a good, honest, square-deal medicine adapted to woman's delicate organization by an educated, trained and experienced specialist in woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments.

Are the above facts not of some importance to you?

Many thousands of America's most famous physicians prescribe Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription because they know just what its composition is—which cannot be said of any other medicine advertised for the cure of woman's special ailments.

It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

It has done this for many hundreds of thousands. What it has done for others it will no doubt do for you if you but give it a fair trial.

Don't be put off with some inferior substitute with no record of cures to recommend it. You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum in place of this tried and proven medicine of known composition.

THOUGHTFUL, INTELLIGENT WOMEN use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for many good reasons. It enables them to avoid the disagreeable questionings and abhorrent examinations generally deemed necessary by the family physician. It cures in the privacy of the home. If, however, you want the advice of a skilled specialist in woman's peculiar maladies, write or call upon Dr. R. V. Pierce at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, 663 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's advice is given gratis. It costs you nothing, but may be worth much to you.

Next to obtaining Dr. Pierce's Personal advice, you will find his great book—The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a book of over a thousand pages, copiously illustrated—offers many valuable suggestions to invalid women. It has been lately revised and brought up-to-date. Costs only 31 one-cent stamps for cloth bound, or 21 stamps in paper binding—just to cover cost of mailing only. Address as above.

ELECTION RESULTS.

The election returns disclose no great surprises, and the condition which they show is satisfactory. In the main good men have been selected, good citizenship being thereby vindicated in this state. The notable exception is the election of "Dave" Rose to be again mayor of Milwaukee, and this is not due to wantonness in that city so much as it is to the folly of stalwart republicans attempting to elect a candidate so hostile to the La Follette men and principles—the ruling element—that he openly declared men who spoke in his behalf must not endorse the La Follette delegates. The Tribune early pointed out that this was a suicidal policy certain to result in the election of Rose.

The election of a solid La Follette delegation was surmised early this morning. This may be erroneous, as Walter Alexander's strength in Marathon county may give him and Brazeau the district for Taft. We sincerely hope not, for the high character and popularity of Mr. Alexander is not sufficient excuse for breaking the slate which would give to Wisconsin's leading statesman an honor his prowess has fairly earned. La Crosse county has done its full duty in this matter, giving the La Follette men strong majorities, and Messrs. Wing and Houser may as well begin to cut down on havanas until they have accumulated the expense money for that trip to Chicago. (At the conclusion of the second revise we beg to state no inference is meant reflecting upon the solvency of Delegates Wing and Houser.)

The election of John Barnes as supreme court justice to succeed Justice Bashford is conceded, and the vote of nearly three to one cast in La Crosse indicates that the general outcome will be pleasing to the overwhelming majority here. The defeat of Mr. Bashford is not so much a rejection upon his capabilities as compared with those of Mr. Barnes, as it is a repudiation of ward political methods in a supposed-to-be dignified non-partisan judicial campaign. Mr. Barnes has a record which shows his breadth of view and deep judicial mind, and we predict he will prove one of the most competent judges the supreme bench of this state has ever afforded.

It is rumored that John C. Burns and John Rice have been elected delegates from this district to the democratic national convention. Indeed, all the democratic delegates in this state have to do is to pleasantly anticipate attending one of the most enthusiastic and optimistic national conventions that party has ever held.

The election of aldermen in the city added three reputable citizens to the council, and the public confidently looks to them for conscientious and valuable service. The selection of two republicans out of three elected makes the majority of the council republican, but this is of no significance, as happily our aldermen have not given much consideration to politics in the transaction of the city's business. All are working in harmony with the mayor for the good of the city, and we predict that the broad gage of their work will not be contracted by a change in the political constituency of the organization.

REBUKING MR. LILLEY.

Mr. Boutell, chairman of the committee that is hearing the Lilley charges that dishonest influence was used in securing a rich contract for government submarines by the Electric Boat company, has rebuked Congressman Lilley for, he alleges, having given out documentary evidence for publication before it was given to the committee.

The attitude of Mr. Boutell has been that of a man looking for something for which to rebuke Mr. Lilley. The committee has hardly assumed the position of desiring the fullest information regarding the facts. Mr. Lilley has been hampered at every turn, and the production of evidence by him has been blocked by the committee on the most discernible subterfuge. If Mr. Lilley has resorted to the plan of having pertinent facts published, so the committee dare not decline to consider them, the end seems to justify the means. There would be more public respect for Mr. Boutell and his committee had they gone energetically into the work of digging for the facts. They are now regarded with a good deal of suspicion by the public, because they have been almost indelicate in their efforts to harass the movements of those who declare that there has been an undue use of official influence in support of a remarkable profitable private enterprise.

Mr. Foraker is now said to have secured a Nebraska delegate, on the strength of negro support. Mr. Foraker evidently made a mistake when he declared himself a candidate for the presidency of the United States. He should have stood for election as president of Dahomey.

A RIFT IN THE CLOUDS.

It was at a St. Patrick's day banquet in New York, and Gov. Hughes was on his feet. Said he:

"My friends, the United States is full of men that you cannot buy. The community is replete with men who will die for the flag. And they are willing to serve the flag in peace which is sometimes harder. Our great city is full of men who ask for naught but an opportunity to give the public something for which they expect no return. Let us appreciate the work that is done by our men upon the bench, by our men in legislative halls, by our men in the administration of government who are really true to our ideals, and let us not fail on these anniversaries to take to ourselves the lesson to be derived from those noble men of the past who risked all that they might be of some benefit to their fellow-men, and, so doing, we shall prosper and attain."

SPOTLIGHTS

The Cow Puncher.
The La Crosse theater announces "The Cow-puncher" by Hal Reid as the attraction for Saturday, April 11. It is a story of life in Arizona and with its excellent company together with the complete scenic production, bids fair to score a big hit. W. F. Mann, the manager, has added several vaudeville features that have been highly praised.

Eleanor Robson Tonight.
One of the really important dramatic events of the season is when Miss Eleanor Robson will appear tonight in "Nurse Marjorie," from the pen of Israel Zangwill. Zangwill, it will be remembered, provided "Merely Mary Ann" for this actress some seasons ago, and from that moment took on the toga of the playwright.

In "Nurse Marjorie" Miss Robson is said to find another of those unique opportunities which fit her like a carefully constructed garment and which give her full play for the exercise of those dramatic and humorous qualities of which she is past mistress. Into the play Mr. Zangwill avowedly has put the theme it is believed he has struck another responsive chord, similar in tone to his previous effort in Miss Robson's behalf. In addition to the general capacity of the star for this line of effort, Lieber & Company have provided a cast that is above the ordinary in many ways, and every effort has been made to give the play a representation that shall be adequate to the occasion.

Concerning the play, Mr. Zangwill has taken a theme that will of necessity appeal, and of which an inkling may be gleaned from the title. He has sounded the depths of an unconventionality in his stage setting, for the first two acts are located in a nursing home in the West End of London, an institution where the very rich go to be treated for opthalmic difficulties. In his third act Mr. Zangwill goes to the old and interesting locality known as "O'Mulligan's Fried Fish Emporium" in Whitechapel, and for the last setting he carries the audience to the home of a shipbuilder resident of Newcastle.

The character played by Miss Robson is that of a nurse, but differing from the familiar type, inasmuch as she has taken up the role not from any motive of playright's necessity but from the belief that it is a woman's duty to do work in the world that will be of benefit to its people. Love is, of course, the prime mover throughout the comedy, and it takes on a complexion that is distinctly interesting and novel, for it is erected upon a superstructure of semi-socialism and political ambition. The principal male character of the story is played by H. B. Warner, who portrays John Danbury, M. P.; that of his father, Andrew Danbury, by E. M. Holland, and other members of the distinguished cast include Ada Dwyer, Earl Browne, Donald Gallagher, Arthur Hoyt, James Seeley, W. H. Denny, Maggie Holloway Fisher and Alary Barker.

At the Bijou.

Although the bill at the Bijou this week contains no members of the fair sex to distract and amuse, the performance is one of great interest and good attractions. Ali-Zada, "Oriental Necromancer in Unique and Mysterious Surprises," does a good turn, set to fascinating oriental music which takes well, and contains some novelties. Especially does the latter part of Mr. Ali-Zada's turn cause wonderment.

Appleton & Perry, "Those Two Little Tattle Tails," are an extremely entertaining comedy team, with lots of new jokes and songs, which are really funny, and which keep the audience in good humor from first to last. One of the members of the "Leland and Lee" team is ill, but the turn hopes to appear later in the week.

The head liner this week, and what proves to be a unique and spectacular turn, is Bert Swan, England's Famous Swimmer and Diver, with his alligators and crocodiles, and feats of under water endurance. This turn is strictly out of the ordinary, alligators and crocodiles seldom being seen in such a turn. Mr. Swan hypnotizes some of the creatures, and also shows the method of capturing alligators, in a most realistic manner. At the close of the turn the struggle with the largest alligator in the tank of water is quite thrilling. Mr. Swan's turn would be of great interest, if it did not contain his excellent exhibition of underwater endurance.

This, however, is very good. Mr. Swan eating fruit and drinking milk, while entirely immersed. The turn meets with well merited applause.

The illustrated song by Milton Kerr, "Sweetheart How I Miss You," is fairly good in melody, but the slides are not as pretty as usual.

The first moving picture, "Swedish Sports," is highly entertaining and instructive as well. The second, "An Icy Day," is a comic, and causes much merriment. The usual good music accompanies the performance.

He Wasn't

Mr. Jones' costume at a masquerade ball was that of a Roman warrior with metal helmet, breastplate, greaves, etc., which, as the evening wore on, occasioned him great discomfort. When the time came for unmasking Jones raised his visor, and a friend inquired whom he was supposed to represent.

"Are you Appius Claudius?" asked he.

"No," replied Jones, wiping his streaming brow; "I'm not. I'm 'appy as the devil!'"—Lippincott's.

FASHION HINTS

By MAY MANTON

5967 Skirt with Spanish Flounce, 23 to 30 waist.

Every design that suits bordered material or flouncing is in demand just now, when there are so many beautiful fabrics of the sort offered. Here is a skirt that is made with a Spanish flounce and which is eminently graceful and becoming, while it is simple in the extreme. In the illustration it is made of bordered batiste but there are almost innumerable suitable materials, not alone bordered ones, but also pretty plain materials that are adapted to the style of the skirt, for such always can be trimmed to give a bordered effect. Bows of ribbon and folds of silk are greatly in vogue for the purpose and embroidery and lace bandings are much used after the same manner, while folds of one material on another also are liked.

The skirt is made with upper portion and the flounce. The upper edge of the flounce is turned under to form its own heading and is gathered and joined to the skirt, which in turn is gathered at its upper edge and joined to the belt.

The quantity of material required for the medium size is 7 yards of bordered material 24 inches wide, or 7 1/4 yards of plain material 24 inches wide, 5 1/4 yards 32 or 3 1/4 yards 44 inches wide.

The pattern 5967 is cut in sizes for a 22, 24, 26, 28 and 30 inch waist measure and will be mailed to any address by the Fashion Department of this paper on receipt of ten cents. (If in haste send an additional two-cent stamp for letter postage which insures more prompt delivery.)

Getting His Own Back.

An ironworker, having had the worst of an argument with a friend, decided to get even with him.

Waiting, therefore, until his enemy had retired to rest one night, he approached his street door, and knocked loudly in order to wake him.

Opening the bedroom window, the other hurriedly inquired what the noise was all about.

"Why," replied the outside one, "one of your windows is wide open."

"Which one?"

"Why, the one you have your head through," chuckled the other as he went away, satisfied with the success of his plot.—Illustrated Bits.

Sage Advice of a Caddy

James Anderson of the Scottish American Golf club smiled at a poor player on the Van Courtland park links in New York.

"He reminds me of a chap I used to know," said Mr. Anderson.

"This chap played so badly that even his caddies made a butt of him."

"He got a ball badly bunkered one day, and do what he would, he couldn't get it out again. Whack, whack, whack he went, missing every time."

"After half an hour's work he wiped his wet face with his handkerchief and turned despairingly to the caddy."

"Hang it," he said, "I have tried all by clubs on this confounded ball. What on earth am I to do now?"

"The caddy laughed harshly.

"Give it a swat with yer bag," he said."

Horrid Day!

THE PAUPER

OF PARK LANE

By William Le Queux

"You mean that we may find it necessary to secure Max Barclay's aid at sacrifice of the girl—eh?"

His companion smiled meaningly.

"We must be careful how we use Barclay," Lyle said. "The young man has his eyes open."

"I know. I'm well aware of that," Adams said, quickly. "He will be of the greatest assistance to us."

"If he has no suspicions."

"What suspicion can he have?"

laughed the other. "All that we've told him he believes to be gospel truth. Only the night before last we dined together at Romano's, and after an hour at the Empire he took me to his club to chat and smoke."

"He, of course, believes the story of the railway concession to be genuine," Lyle suggested. "Let me see, the concession is somewhere in the Balkans, isn't it?"

"Yes; the railroad from Nisch, in Servia, across Northern Albania, to San Giovanni di Medua, on the Adriatic. A grand scheme that's been talked of for years, and which the Sultan has always prevented by refusing to allow the line to pass through Turkish territory."

"Our story is," added Adams, "that his Majesty has at last signed an irrevocable grant of permission, and that within a month or so the whole concession will be given over to an English group of whom I am the representative. I saw that the scheme appealed to him from the very first. He recognized that there was money in it, for such a line would tap the whole trade of the Balkans, and by a junction near the Iron Gates of the Danube, take the trade of Roumania, Hungary, and South-Western Russia to the Adriatic instead of as at present into the Black Sea."

"For the past week I've met Barclay nearly every day. He suggested that, as the railway would be a matter of millions, he should approach old Sam Statham and ask him to lend us his support."

"Does he know Statham?"

"Slightly. But I at once declined to allow him to speak about the scheme."

"Why?"

"Because old Sam, with the aid of his spies and informants in diplomatic circles, could in three days satisfy himself whether our story was true or false. It would have given the whole story away at once. So I made an excuse for continued secrecy."

"Quite right. We must not court failure by allowing any inquiry to be prematurely made," said Lyle. "Make the project a secret one, and speak of it with bated breath. Hint at diplomatic difficulties between Turkey and England, if the truth were known."

"That's just what I have done, and he's completely misled. I explained that Germany would try and bring pressure upon the Sultan to withdraw the irade as soon as it was known that the railway had fallen into British hands. And he believed me implicitly."

"He had no suspicion of whom you really are?"

"Certainly not. He believes that I've never met Statham, but that I have the greatest admiration for his financial stability and his excellent personal qualities. Adams replied: "He knows me as Jean Adam, of Paris, as they do here in these flats—a man who has extensive business relations in the Near East, and therefore well in with the nabobs of the Sublime Porte and the officials of the Yildiz. I tell you, Lyle, the young fellow believes in me."

"Because you're such a confoundedly clever actor. You'd deceive the cutest business man in London, with your wonderful documents, your rosy prospectuses, and your tales of fortunes ready to be picked up if only a few thousands are invested. You've thoroughly fascinated young Max Barclay, who, believing that you've obtained a very valuable concession, is seized with a laudable desire to share the profits and to obtain a lucrative occupation as a director of the company in question."

"Once he has fallen entirely in our power, the rest will be easy," answered the adventurer. "I mean to have my revenge, and you receive thirty thousand as your share."

"But what form is this revenge of yours to take?" the hunchback inquired. "You have never told me that."

"It is my own affair," answered Adams, leaning back against the mantelpiece.

"Well, I think between friends there should not be any distrust," Lyle remarked. "You don't think I'd give you away, do you? It's to my interest to assist you and obtain the thirty thousand."

"And you will, if you stick to me," Adams answered.

"But I'd like to know your main object."

"You know that already."

"But only yesterday you told me that you don't want a farthing of old Statham's money."

"Nor do I. His money has a curse upon it—the money fleeced from the pockets of widows and orphans, money that has been obtained by fraud and misrepresentation," cried Adams. "Today he is respected and lauded on account of his pious act and his philanthropy; yet yesterday he floated rotten concerns and coolly placed hundreds of thousands in his pocket by reason of the glowing promises that he never fulfilled. No!"

cried the man, clenching his strong, hard fist; "I don't want a single penny of his money. You, Lyle, may have what you want of it—thirty thousand to be the minimum."

"You talk as though you contemplated handling his fortune," the other remarked, in some surprise.

"When I reveal to him my intentions, his banking account will be at my disposal, depend upon it," Adams said. "But I don't want any of his bribes. I shall refuse them. I will have my revenge. It shall be an eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth. He showed me no mercy—and I will show him none—none. But it is Max Barclay who will assist me towards that end, and the girl at Cunningham's, Marion Rolfe, who must be made the cat's paw."

Lyle remained thoughtful, his eyes upon the carpet.

"Yes," he said, slowly, at last. "I quite follow you and divine your intentions. But, remember she's a woman. Is it just—Is it human?"

"Human!" echoed the cosmopolitan, removing his cigarette as he shrugged his shoulders with a nonchalant air. "To me it matters nothing, so long as I attain my object. Surely you are not chicken-hearted enough to be moved by a woman's tears."

"I don't understand you," his friend declared.

"No; I suppose you don't," he answered. "And, to be frank with you, Lyle, I don't intend at this moment that you shall. My intention is my own affair. I merely foreshadow to you the importation into the affair of a woman who will, through no fault of her own, be compelled to suffer in order to allow me to achieve the object I have in view."

The hunchback turned slightly towards the curtained window. He moved quickly in order to conceal an expression upon his face, which, had it been detected by his companion, the startling and amazing events recorded in the following chapters would surely never have occurred.

But John Adams, standing there in ignorance, was chuckling over the secret of the terrible triumph that was so very soon to be his—a triumph to be secured by the sacrifice of an honest woman!

PROGRAM ISSUED FOR THE FLEETS

VESSELS OF WAR WILL VISIT VARIOUS COAST TOWNS

SEVERAL WILL BE DOCKED

All Will Gather at San Francisco in July Preparatory to the Start for the Orient

WASHINGTON, April 8.—The bureau of navigation today issued a program for the movement of the fleets after the reviews at San Francisco. The Pacific fleet leaves May 9th for the south, to carry out a program of drills. The Atlantic fleet leaves May 19th and will arrive on Puget Sound the 21st. Four ships will visit Port Angeles, eight Bellingham bay, three Port Townsend and one the navy yard at Bremerton to be docked. All except the one docked will rendezvous in the vicinity of Port Townsend May 23rd, and anchor near Seattle.

Twelve will leave May 26 for Tacoma, eight without anchoring will sail for San Francisco, leaving four for a three days' visit, after which they will go to Bremerton for docking. Eight are expected at San Francisco May 29th.

The ships docked will sail for San Francisco as soon as ready, the last not to arrive before July 1st.

The schedule indicates no ships will be sent into British waters before the arrival at New Zealand. Canada informally expressed a wish the ships be sent to Victoria or Esquimalt, the old British naval stations.

ENGINE LEAPS FROM "DERAIL"

While running at full speed last evening at Newport passenger train No. 48 on the Burlington road ran off the "derail."

It is said that the accident was caused by the fact that the train was not given the main track and that the engineer did not see the signals. The engine was buried in the sand and one of the cars went off the track with it.

Passenger train No. 48 came in four hours late as a result of the wreck.

The engineer and fireman escaped. It took several hours to get the engine out of the sand.

The damage done to the engine was not great. Beyond a severe jolt the passengers escaped injury.

DURHAM WHITE STEVENS, M. W. CHUNG

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 7.—The murderous attack on D. W. Stevens by two Koreans, M. W. Chung and I. Wong Chaeng, was only a forerunner of troubles for the Japanese and their sympathizers. Mr. Stevens was attached to the Japanese diplomatic service as legal adviser, and in Japan's recent subjugation of Korea he played an important part. So bitterly was Mr. Stevens hated by the Koreans that he was termed "the renegade American." The shooting occurred as Mr. Stevens was leaving San Francisco for Washington. He had just alighted from an automobile, accompanied by the Japanese consul at San Francisco, and was attending to the checking of his baggage when he was attacked by I. Wong Chaeng. Chaeng's revolver, which was hidden in his handkerchief, failed to work, and he then attacked Mr. Stevens with the butt of his revolver. Mr. Stevens overpowered him and Chaeng ran away, with Stevens chasing him. Just then the bystanders were horrified to hear the report of a pistol in the hands of M. W. Chung, who was standing in the crowd. Chung's first shot missed Stevens, but hit Chaeng, inflicting a serious flesh wound. The second and third shots were better aimed, and took immediate effect on Stevens.

LA FOLLETTE HAS SOLID DELEGATION

rate commissioner, who would otherwise have made no extraordinary efforts to elect the former rate commissioner, were stung into an activity seldom seen in a judicial campaign when the opponents of Mr. Barnes made charges reflecting upon his conduct in the fight for a reduction of passenger fares.

The argument that the northwest part of the state was entitled to a larger representation upon the supreme bench, the thickly settled southern and eastern section having the larger representation, was also a factor in the outcome.

The manner in which the support was accorded Mr. Barnes in all sections, however, showed that it was not a sectional argument which caused the result. Racine, Kenosha, Rock counties, and even Dane county, the home of Justice Bashford, gave him good pluralities.

Carries Bashford's Home. Ashland county, Barron county and Brown county gave him a good vote. Burnett is for Bashford. The Dane county vote was one of the big surprises, as Justice Bashford has long been a resident and a practicing lawyer in that county's metropolis.

The Barnes candidacy was given a support in Milwaukee county much stronger than his supporters expected. Sparta gave Bashford 265 and Barnes 256; Madison gave Barnes a small plurality, even Bashford's home ward going for his rival; Columbus gave Barnes 273 to Bashford's 218; Racine gave Barnes 273 to Bashford's 218; Dodge county was strongly Barnes, the city of Juneau giving him 220 as against 21 for Bashford. Fond du Lac gave Barnes a total of nearly 4,500 votes, a plurality of 1,900.

So it runs down the list. Jefferson is strongly Barnes, while Monroe is in the Bashford column. St. Croix, like Monroe, in the western part of the state, is for Bashford from the incomplete returns available, and Vernon, a strong La Follette county, the home of Gov. Davidson's secretary, Senator Munson, supported the choice of the governor, giving Bashford about 1,000. Waushara county is for Bashford, an estimate of the plurality there being 500.

The Prohibition Fight. City elections were held throughout the state. Joe Konkol, democrat, was defeated for mayor of Superior. Manitowish defeated the socialist candidates after a strenuous fight.

The results on the license issue were:

For License. Mineral Point, Plattville, Lancaster, Darlington, Whitehall, Galesville, Pewaukee, Bayfield, Washburn, Union Grove, Chasaburg, West Salem, Hudson, Ladysmith, Marinette, Peshtigo, Edgerton, Shullsburg, Tomah, Altoona City, Benton, Fort Atkinson, Mauston, Barron, Drown, Waupaca, Wausaukee, Menomonie, Wheeler, Elkhor, Bangor, Beloit, Clinton.

No License. Dodgeville, Fennimore, Montford, Argyle, Belmont, Blanchardsville, Green Lake, Mondovi, La Farge, Richland Center, Afton, Hanover, South Wayne, Cobb, Barneveld, Sparta, Grantsburg, Viroqua, Reeds, town, Brodhead, Winslow, Footville.

Municipal elections were held in most of the cities of the state, and the following circuit judges were elected:

Judge George W. Burnett, Oshkosh, in the Third circuit; Judge Charles M. Webb, Grand Rapids, in the Seventh; Judge Eugene W. Helms, Hudson, in the Eighth; and Judge E. Ray Stevens, Madison, in the Ninth. In Milwaukee W. J. Turner was elected judge of the new branch of the circuit court.

Little Grand Duke Alexis has become very popular with the people over whom he will rule as czar some day, if nothing happens to prevent. Copies of his latest picture are eagerly bought and stories of his high spirits and cunning ways are told and heard with delight.

You may not be able to tell a farmer's wife from the wife of a city man by the clothes she wears; she dresses as well as the city woman. But in one way you can always tell a farmer's wife, when she goes to a restaurant with her husband she always waits until he orders and then says to the waitress: "Same for me, please."

It is when considered from the view point of perpetual efficiency that Onalaska, as a location for this school looms so far to the front. Here one may find soils ranging from heavy clay clear through the list to light sand and all nearby the proposed site. Here the crops are not confined to hay, corn and potatoes but every crop which may be grown any place in the county may be grown near here.

The location we have to offer is of most excellent soil, well drained, and exceedingly fertile; commanding an unsurpassed view of the surrounding country and of Black river. It affords a beautiful building site and in extent is not merely a tract of ten acres but may be expanded to thirty, thus giving the institution sufficient land to really conduct an experimental station and not confine it to the limited field of a theoretical school.

The buildings will be supplied with artesian water from the city mains which will be extended to the site. Besides these advantages the natural slope of the land allows of easy solution, not only of the sewerage problem but also will give the students opportunity to begin their experiments at the earliest possible moment each spring.

Compare these advantages with those that can possibly be claimed for a site of ten acres of heavy clay, without slope enough to carry off even its own surplus of rain without considering the fact that all the surplus water from the surrounding countryside flows onto it and one cannot but decide emphatically in favor of the site offered by Onalaska.

In no way can the opinions expressed by Dr. Russell be better applied to West Salem than to Onalaska. No one will dispute the statement that the school should be placed in an agricultural district rather than in a city. It was with this fact distinctly in mind that Onalaska chose the site it did and offered it to the county. Still the school must be so located that students from all parts of the county may reach it easily and inexpensively. Onalaska has better railroad facilities than any other competitor for the school as the Burlington, Northwestern and Green Bay roads all pass through the city. Besides it has street car connection with La Crosse enabling passengers on the Milwaukee road to reach here with no inconvenience and is on the line of survey of the new electric line proposed by the Hatfield Power company. Thus it is shown that Onalaska may be easily reached from the north and south as well as from the east and west.

We have no creamery, it is true, but the excellent one at Holmen is only a short distance away and the fine road will enable the students to visit it readily and also make observations en route of they so choose. Prof. Russell is not aware of the advantages of the Onalaska site, having as it does soil suitable for general farming purposes so strongly advocated by Mr. Russell.

And lately Onalaska claims for its own, an institution second to none in the state, the Onalaska Pickle and Canning company, which each year uses thousands of dollars worth of farm products that are fast becoming recognized as among the most profitable of the farmers' crops. In conclusion let us again urge those who have the selection of the site entrusted to them to remember that upon their choice hangs the life or death of the institution. If successful it must be situated so that the student may become familiar with the soil in his home locality. In other words the site must be one which contains the soils of the entire county within a very small radius, as does Onalaska.

Salem Folks Active

The citizens of West Salem are looking forward with a good deal of hopeful anticipation to the proposed agricultural training school, which they feel is likely to be located there. The village will vote a generous bonus toward this end at the coming election.

The new road over the ridge to Mindoro is also in line of progress, and due largely to the initiative of West Salem citizens.

TWO REMARKABLE CURES OF ECZEMA

Over Twenty-three Years Ago Baby had Severe Attack—Years Later Grandfather Suffered Torments with the Disease—Virulent Sores Developed from Knees to Toes.

BOTH OWE COMPLETE RECOVERY TO CUTICURA

"In 1884 my grandson, a babe, had an attack of eczema, and after trying the doctors to the extent of heavy bills and an increase of the disease and suffering, I recommended Cuticura and in a few weeks the child was well. He is to-day a strong man and absolutely free from the disease. A few years ago I contracted eczema, and became an intense sufferer. A whole winter passed without once having on shoes, my ankles and nearly from the knees to the toes being covered with virulent sores. I tried practitioners, specialists, dermatologists, etc., to no purpose. My daughter-in-law reminded me of having prescribed Cuticura for my grandson more than twenty years ago. I at once procured the Cuticura Remedies and found immediate improvement and final cure, till to-day, though well along in years, I am as though I had never had that disease. I am well known in the vicinity of Louisville and Cincinnati, and all this could be verified by witnesses. M. W. LaRue, 845 Seventh St., Louisville, Ky., April 23 and May 14, 1907."

The agonizing itching and burning of the skin, as in eczema; the frightful scaling, as in psoriasis; the loss of hair and crusting of scalp, as in scalded head; the facial disfigurement, as in acne—all demand remedies of extraordinary virtues to successfully cope with them. That Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills are such stands proven by testimonials of remarkable cures when many remedies and even no physicians have failed. One set is often sufficient to cure.

Cuticura Soap (25c) to Cleanse the Skin, Cuticura Ointment (50c) to Heal the Skin, Cuticura Pills (50c) to Purify the Blood. Sold throughout the world. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Free, Cuticura Book on Skin Diseases.

officers: Mayor, McMullen; treasurer, Koopman; assessor, Kuckuck; clerk, Wells. License carried by 100 majority.

Cashion to Bond
The vote at Cashion as light. For supreme court Barnes was given 39, Bashford 28 and Ruger 6. The proposition to bond for $15,000 for a lighting plant carried 91 to 33. Village officers were elected as follows:

President, Carl C. Coe; trustees, E. H. Brown, Granville Hall, Nick Erickson, supervisor, P. E. Nelson; assessor, John Willigence; police justice, J. A. Moen; justice of the peace, full term, S. W. Perkins; to fill vacancy, Emer Peterson; constable, Wm. Degenhardt; treasurer, P. H. Justinger.

In the Eighth ward Schnell (Dem.) was elected alderman over Niedbalski (Rep.) by 165 to 43.

In the Fifth ward Arenz (Rep.) was elected alderman over Zeibentz (Dem.) 74 to 69.

This gives the republicans a majority of one in the city council, but of late years the council has not transacted its business on political lines and as there are no important appointments or other matters to be attended to where politics would make a difference this matter is not regarded as important.

MINNESOTA AND THE NORTHWEST

BRYAN STRIKES AT JOHNSON CROWD

INVADES MINNESOTA TO COMBAT THE GOVERNOR

HIS ENEMIES ARE ACTIVE

Tom Taggart and Rodger Sullivan Said to Plan Delivery of State to Johnson

Washington Bureau of The La Crosse Tribune

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 8. (By J. C. Welliver.)

The boom for Governor Johnson of Minnesota, which has been revived with a good deal of force recently, is not to be permitted an easy pathway if the Bryanites in Minnesota can help themselves.

The Bryan people have been watching the Johnson movement as a cat does a mouse, for a long time. It is the only proposition in the realm of democratic politics that gives them real worry. They don't like its looks, and they are anxious to extinguish it at the earliest possible moment.

Johnson No Cause for Worry

To this end, democratic members of the house have received letters from D. L. Savage of Minneapolis, a leading Bryan democrat of the state, pointing out that Johnson is really a negative and colorless sort of man; that he was elected governor of Minnesota on his part, but because there was a republican bolt which common decency made effective; that today Johnson is merely pressed for leadership of a democratic bolt from the policies which the party has assumed to represent; that he is lending himself to the men and interests opposed to Bryan in 1900 and 1904.

It is declared by Mr. Savage that as a candidate for president Johnson could not begin to carry Minnesota, and that it is useless for members of the party to permit themselves to be misled by such claims. Moreover, it is made clear that Bryan people do not intend to concede Minnesota to Johnson.

Minnesota Heart of Battle

A Bryan press bureau has been established in St. Paul, and great activity is displayed in the effort to smother Johnson at home. The state convention for Minnesota will be held May 8, and the Bryan people confidently claim that Johnson will not keep more than half the delegates away from the Nebraska, and that this will amount to putting Johnson out of the running. With this accomplished they think the last suggestion of opposition to Bryan will be removed. Gray, Harmon, McClellan and the rest are considered certain to drop quietly out of sight as soon as Johnson is suppressed. Incidentally it is believed that this demonstration of Bryan's power is likely to keep Hearst from undertaking any serious sort of independent movement.

One of the owners was found to be M. J. Lyons of 2352 State street and the other was a son of Mr. Toeller at the Doerflinger Park store. The third wheel is still at the central station awaiting its owner.

Sullivan and Taggart Combine

The anti-Bryan people decline to concede any of these claims. They are just now rejoicing over what they claim is information that Roger Sullivan in Illinois and Tom Taggart in Indiana have made a combination with the powers in their states, and with the anti-Bryan forces in the east and in Minnesota, by which, while seeming to drop the fight in their own states, these two anti-Bryan leaders will be able actually to dominate the Illinois and Indiana delegations, for the greater part at least, and to go into combination with the delegates from New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Ohio and other states that are to be kept out of the bandwagon, and thus make sure that the necessary two-thirds with which to nominate will not be for Bryan in the convention.

This story about Sullivan, Taggart, Illinois and Indiana, is giving the Bryan people real worry. It is indeed, the reason why they are determined to invade Minnesota and stake so much on the effort to kill Johnson at home. They must put the strongest opposition candidate out of the race and do it early, and to that their best energies will be bent from this time forth.

Hope is the mother of disappointment.

WESSINGTON SPRINGS, S. D.—Suit has been brought against County Commissioner O. O. England of Jerauld county to compel him to return money to the county received by him for road work.

PICTURES RECALL RIVER MEMORIES

Two pictures of old time steamboats now occupy prominent positions on the walls of the White Collar line warehouse in Burlington, and many river men who visit La Crosse state that the pictures bring back memories of old times and give them pleasure to gaze upon such reproductions.

One is of the Robert E. Lee taken on her famous trip from New Orleans to St. Louis, and the other is a reproduction of the race between the "Hawkeye" and the "Phil Sheridan" from St. Louis to St. Paul. The two boats named operated between St. Louis and St. Paul in the sixties.

The "Phil Sheridan" was a White Collar line boat and the "Hawkeye" was a Northern line boat, the two companies competing. This historical race, which is represented in the picture, was arranged before hand between the two boats. The agreement was made that each boat should make all the principal landings between St. Louis and St. Paul. In order to save time they picked up barges of coal and wood along the line, carrying the barges with them while the crew unloaded the fuel, then cutting the barge loose. Both boats stopped at La Crosse on their way up, but as at all other points, the stop was only long enough to let passengers off and on.

The "Hawkeye" won the race, arriving at St. Paul July, 1867, after making the trip from St. Louis in
